CLASSROOM EDITION v0.2

Prepared for classroom use and sample-group testing

How to use this book

Work through the modules in order. Each module follows Learn → Notice → Build → Choose → Use → Check → Retrieve → Reflect.

Write your first answer in the space provided. Do not worry about being perfect: your first attempt is useful evidence of what you already know.

After feedback, correct your work and explain one important change. Then return to the language later through the retrieval tasks.

Use the module progress check to record what feels secure and what still needs another return.

The book is designed for A4 portrait printing, duplex, long-edge, at 100% / actual size.

How each module works

LEARN

Meet meaning in context.

NOTICE

Find the useful pattern.

BUILD

Assemble it with support.

CHOOSE

Discriminate between options.

USE

Communicate for a purpose.

CHECK

Diagnose the first attempt.

RETRIEVE

Return without the rule box.

REFLECT

Name progress and next steps.

Do not erase useful errors: correct them beside the first attempt so progress remains visible.

Sentence building blocks

LEARN → NOTICE → BUILD → CHOOSE → USE → CHECK → RETRIEVE → REFLECT

Your goals

- ☐ I can find the subject and finite verb in a simple statement.
- ☐ I can distinguish a complete sentence, a phrase and a dependent-clause fragment.
- ☐ I can repair an unfinished message.
- ☐ I can write complete classroom and personal-information sentences without the rule box.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · Complete message or unfinished piece?

Read each line. Decide whether the listener receives a complete message. Do not use grammar labels yet.

A01-01. The new student

A01-02. The new student smiled.

A01-03. Because the new student smiled

A01-04. The bell rang.

A02 · Learn · Three kinds of building block

Compare the three examples. Say what each one can do in a message.

A02-01. after the final lesson

A02-02. the bell rang

A02-03. because the bell rang

A03 · Notice · The smallest useful rule

Use the box to connect word jobs with sentence jobs.

A03-01. Core statement pattern

A03-02. Subject

A03-03. Verb

A03-04. Object

A03-05. Accuracy guardrail

A03-06. Word-job bank

A04 · Notice · Find the jobs inside the message

Use the word-job bank. Then mark S (subject), V (finite verb) and O (object) where possible.

A04-01. In "The careful student answered quickly", label careful, student, answered and quickly.

A04-02. In "Lina waited under the tree because it was raining", label Lina, under, because and it.

A04-03. In "Those books are new", label those and books.

A04-04. In "A few students stayed", identify the quantifier.

A04-05. Mark S, V and O in "Mina opened the window".

A04-06. Mark S and V in "The baby slept". Is an object required?

A05 · Build · Build complete statements

Put the word groups in a natural order. Add a capital letter and full stop.

A05-01. after class / the team / practised

A05-02. opened / Leo / the red box

A05-03. the new teacher / smiled

A05-04. quietly / the students / entered / the library

A05-05. our group / a poster / designed / for the event

A06 · Choose · Sentence, phrase or clause fragment?

Choose A, B or C. A = complete sentence. B = phrase or group without a full subject-verb pair. C = clause fragment with a subject and verb but an unfinished link.

A06-01. The science club meets on Tuesdays.

A B C

A06-02. under the old wooden bridge

A B C

A06-03. because the bus was late

A B C

A06-04. our new art teacher

A B C

A06-05. We finished the poster before lunch.

A B C

A06-06. when the bell rings

A B C

A06-07. speaks quietly after lunch

A B C

A06-08. My friends and I practised outside.

A B C

A07 · Use · Repair and write for real meaning

Work in English without the box. Repair the three unfinished messages, then write three true sentences of your own.

A07-01. Repair: My best friend from Grade 6.

A07-02. Repair: Plays basketball every Friday.

A07-03. Repair: Because our bus arrived late.

A07-04. Write one true sentence about a routine.

A07-05. Write one classroom sentence with an object.

A07-06. Write one true sentence whose verb needs no object.

A08 · Check · Repair the decision

Decide whether each line is complete. If it is not, diagnose the missing decision and repair it.

A08-01. The tall boy near the gate.

A08-02. Carries the equipment after lunch.

A08-03. When our science lesson ended.

A08-04. Our class planted trees.

A08-05. The students happy today.

A09 · Check · Use your error code and retry

Choose one error you made. Follow its route: read the cue, compare the contrast, retry the original item, then check the explanation.

A09-01. Record the error code, your repaired answer and your next route.

A10 · Retrieve · Do it without the box

Close or cover all earlier explanations. Complete from memory.

A10-01. What two core jobs anchor a simple statement clause?

A10-02. What extra job may follow a verb such as open, design or plant?

A10-03. Classify: under the table

A10-04. Classify: the table moved

A10-05. Classify: because the table moved

A10-06. Write one new complete sentence and mark S, V and O if it has one.

A11 · Reflect · What clue did you use?

Reflect briefly. Confidence changes the next route, not the mastery result.

A11-01. Name the most useful clue for distinguishing a phrase from a clause.

A11-02. Complete: I first thought ____, but now I know ____.

A11-03. Choose confidence 1-4 and the evidence that supports it.

A11-04. Choose next route: continue, repeat mixed choice, revisit the box or ask the teacher.

L0 · Retrieve · Same-session exit without notes

Complete after the earlier page is closed. No grammar heading or word bank is shown.

L0-02. the long break ended

L0-03. although the long break ended

L0-04. Repair: Our new classroom near the library.

L0-05. Repair: Carries the sports bags every Monday.

L0-06. Write a complete message about today.

L1 · Retrieve · Return in approximately 1-3 days

Complete without reopening Module 1.

L1-01. before the morning meeting

L1-02. our teacher checked the list

L1-03. when our teacher checked the list

L1-04. Repair: The school garden very quiet.

L1-05. Identify S, V and O: Our monitor collected the books.

L1-06. Write one new sentence with an object.

L2 · Retrieve · Return in S7-M03 or approximately 7-14 days

Complete this mixed return among questions, pronouns and frequency work. The old target is not named.

L2-01. Does your brother walk to school?

L2-02. your brother after school

L2-03. because she studies at home

L2-04. Repair: My sister very patient.

L2-05. Identify the subject and finite verb: She usually studies at home.

L2-06. Write one sentence about a habit, then mark its subject and finite verb.

L3 · Retrieve · Return in S7-M07 or approximately 21-35 days

Edit the short school report, then write a transfer message. This is the delayed retention gate.

L3-01. Edit: After lunch. Our class practised a play. Because the hall was free. The teacher moved the chairs.

L3-02. In the repaired report, identify one subject-verb pair and one object.

L3-03. Write a two-sentence report about a school event. Include one subject-verb-object sentence and one clause joined with because, when or while.

L3-04. State the clue you used and confidence 1-4.

Module progress check

Your goals

- ☐ I can use am/is/are and their negative forms for present facts and states.
- ☐ I can use present-simple lexical verbs and have/has with accurate subject agreement.
- ☐ I can form negatives with don't/doesn't + base form and avoid adding do/does to be.
- ☐ I can write a short routine profile with positive and negative facts.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · Meet Leo through his routine

Read the four facts about Leo. Decide what each line tells us: a routine, a present state or something that is not true. Do not name a tense yet.

A01-01. Leo is quiet in the morning.

A01-02. Leo walks to school every day.

A01-03. Leo doesn't bring lunch on Fridays.

A01-04. Leo isn't at school today.

A02 · Learn · What changes when the sentence becomes negative?

Compare each pair. Say what stays the same and what changes in the message.

A02-01. Mina is helpful. / Mina isn't helpful.

A02-02. Kai plays chess after school. / Kai doesn't play chess after school.

A02-03. The club has a piano. / The club doesn't have a piano.

A02-04. She walks home. / They walk home.

A07 · Use · Write a routine profile

Work in English without the decision box. Write true or realistic information. Do not copy the examples.

A07-01. Write one affirmative sentence about your school-day routine.

A07-02. Write one negative sentence about a routine that does not happen.

A07-03. Write one affirmative fact or present state with be.

A07-04. Write one negative fact or present state with be.

A07-05. Write a four-sentence profile of a classmate, family member or invented student. Include: one be sentence, one third-person routine, one negative lexical-verb or have sentence, and one frequency expression.

A08 · Check · Diagnose and repair

Each sentence contains one target error. Name the error code if you can, then write the accurate sentence.

A08-01. My sister walk to school every day.

A08-02. He doesn't plays basketball after school.

A08-03. They don't tired after lunch.

A08-04. Mina isn't have a school lunch.

A09 · Check · Use the full repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow its route: diagnose, cue, contrast, retry, explain/reveal, then record the next route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → what changed → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Rebuild the survey language from memory

Cover all earlier explanations. Complete the items in English from memory.

A10-01. Complete the lexical-question pattern: question word + ____/____ + subject + ____ form.

A10-02. Change to a question: Sara often reads after dinner.

A10-03. Write the short negative answer: Are the students usually late?

A10-04. Complete with pronouns: Mina knows Leo, and ____ often helps ____.

A10-05. Reorder: how often / your brother / does / cook / dinner

A10-06. Reorder: our teacher / is / rarely / late

A10-07. Write one new how often question and an accurate short or complete answer.

A10-08. Write two report sentences about one person's habits using one subject pronoun, one object pronoun and two different frequency expressions.

A11 · Reflect · What clue helped you choose?

Reflect briefly. Confidence helps select practice; it does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What tells you to begin a question with be rather than do/does?

A11-02. How do you choose a subject pronoun or an object pronoun?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Complete after the earlier pages are closed. No decision box or grammar heading is shown.

L0-01. ____ your friends usually ready before registration? (be)

L0-02. ____ Hana walk home on Fridays? (do)

L0-03. ____ does the music club meet? — In Room 6.

L0-04. Complete with pronouns: Ava knows Ben, and ____ often sits beside ____.

L0-05. Reorder: sometimes / we / games / play / after lunch

L0-06. Choose the accurate line.

A. Does Mina usually brings a snack? B. Does Mina usually bring a snack? C. Is Mina usually bring a snack?

L0-07. Repair: Do Leo often tired after training?

L0-08. Write two new survey questions and answer each with a clear pronoun.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3 day return

Complete without reopening Module 3. Route repeated errors to the matching contrast.

L1-01. ____ often do the students use the library?

L1-02. What time ____ the first lesson start?

L1-03. ____ the art room usually quiet after lunch?

L1-04. Replace the names: Kai speaks to Mina and me. Kai speaks to ____.

L1-05. Repair: Does your sister studies every evening?

L1-06. Repair: I don't hardly ever take the bus.

L1-07. Give a short answer: Do Ava and Ben practise together? (yes)

L1-08. Write one question and a three-sentence report using they, them and two frequency expressions.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — routine or happening now?

Complete inside Module 5 or the nearest 7-14 day session. Use the context to choose the question and report form.

L2-01. Ask about Ava's normal travel habit.

L2-02. Ask about Ava's action at this moment.

L2-03. Choose the routine question.

A. Is Ben practising every Tuesday? B. Does Ben practising every Tuesday? C. Does Ben practise every Tuesday?

L2-04. Complete with pronouns: The teacher is speaking to Ava and Ben. She is speaking to ____.

L2-05. Repair the neutral routine report: Leo plays often chess with his cousin.

L2-06. Give a short answer: Is the hall usually busy at lunch? (yes)

L2-07. Write one routine question and one contrasting question about now.

L2-08. Report both answers in two sentences with clear pronouns.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — delayed interview transfer gate

Complete in Module 9 or the nearest 21-35 day session. Edit the interview, then produce a new report. An external checker must verify both evidence parts.

L3-01. Edit: How often Maya practises the guitar?

L3-02. Edit: Does she practises alone? — Yes, she does.

L3-03. Edit for clear reference. Intended meaning: Maya's teacher gives Maya new songs. Maya's teacher gives her new songs, and she practises them at home.

L3-04. Choose the neutral frequency report.

A. Maya is usually practise after dinner. B. Maya practises usually new songs after dinner. C. Maya usually practises new songs after dinner.

L3-05. Create an independent five-question habits interview and a five-sentence report. Include be and do/does questions, how often, subject/object pronouns and three different frequency expressions.

L3-06. External check: record the mixed-editing result, production result and any governed retry before assigning a mastery state.

- ☐ I can ask, answer and write independently about a live scene.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · What is happening, and what is changing?

Read each short message. Decide whether it describes an action happening now, a temporary situation around now, or a usual routine. Do not name the tense yet.

A01-01. Please be quiet. Hana is speaking to the class now.

A01-02. Our hall is closed, so we are eating lunch in the library this week.

A01-03. Leo usually eats lunch in the hall.

A01-04. Look! The rain is getting heavier.

A02 · Learn · See the present from two viewpoints

Read each pair. Explain why the two sentences use different forms even though both connect to present time.

A02-01. Mina walks to school every day. Today, she is taking the bus.

A02-02. The art club usually works in the art room. This week, it is working in Room 8 while the art room is closed.

A06-12. The action is a stable daily routine, not a temporary change.

- A. Leo is walking to school every day. B. Leo walks to school every day. C. Leo walk to school every day.

A07 · Use · Describe a live scene and one temporary change

Work in English without the decision box. You may observe a safe classroom scene or invent one; nobody must be identified or photographed.

A07-01. Write two sentences about actions happening now. Use two different subjects.

A07-02. Write one negative sentence about an action that is not happening now.

A07-03. Write one question about an action happening now and give an accurate short answer.

A07-04. Write one pair contrasting a usual routine with what is happening now.

A07-05. Write one sentence about a temporary change this week or these days.

A07-06. Write a five-sentence live-scene description. Include an affirmative, a negative, a question and short answer, and one routine contrast.

A07-07. Add one sentence explaining why one continuous form fits its context better than the present simple.

A08 · Check · Diagnose and repair the present-time choice

Each line has one target problem. Name the error code if you can, then repair it.

A08-01. Look! Mina carrying the chairs.

A08-02. The students are wait outside now.

A08-03. I is sitting near the window.

A08-04. Amir is runing to the bus.

A08-07. The boys are no playing football at the moment.

A08-08. I am knowing the answer.

A08-09. The sentence 'She is studying this week' is chosen only because it contains this week; no temporary context is given.

A09 · Check · Use the full repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow its route: diagnose, cue, contrast, retry, explain/reveal, then record the next route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → what changed → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Rebuild the present-time system from memory

Cover all earlier explanations. Complete the items in English from memory.

A10-01. Complete the form: subject + ____/____/____ + verb-____.

A10-02. Write the negative: Leo is carrying a box.

A10-03. Change to a question: The students are working quietly.

A10-04. Spell the -ing forms: write; run; open.

A10-05. Choose and complete: Mina usually ____ (walk), but today she ____ (take) the bus.

A10-06. Repair: We are need more time.

A10-07. Write one new question and short answer about an action happening now.

A10-08. Write one routine/now contrast and one temporary-change sentence.

A11 · Reflect · Which meaning clue decided the form?

Reflect briefly. Confidence helps select practice; it does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What two meanings does the present continuous target in this module?

A11-02. Why is one time expression not enough to prove the tense choice?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1–4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or headings.

L0-01. Look! The dog ____ (run) across the field.

L1-02. Repair: What are Mina make at the moment?

L1-03. Repair: We are siting beside the door.

L1-04. Choose the state form and explain: I need / am needing a pencil.

L1-05. Write one question about a visible action and answer it negatively.

L1-06. Write three linked sentences: a routine, a different action now and one temporary change.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M06

In S7-M06 or the timetable equivalent, mix this module with earlier question and frequency work. No target heading is shown.

L2-01. Ask about the visible action: Leo is carrying a drum.

L2-02. Complete the contrast: We usually ____ (eat) in the hall, but this week we ____ (eat) outside.

L2-03. Repair: Does Mina writing now?

L2-04. Repair: The boys isn't waiting at the moment.

L2-05. Write one how-often question about a routine and one question about an action now.

L2-06. Write a four-sentence report contrasting ordinary routines with today's temporary scene.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M10 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen scene task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Look! Mina carry a box, and the boys is waiting by the door.

L3-02. Edit for intended routine/now meaning: Leo is usually walking home, but today he takes the bus now.

L3-03. Edit: What does Hana making? — No, she doesn't.

L3-04. Write an unseen six-sentence scene report: two actions now, one negative, one question with answer, one routine contrast and one temporary change.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

Your goals

- ☐ I can distinguish a routine or state from an action now or temporary situation.
- ☐ I can use the whole context instead of following one time word.
- ☐ I can choose accurate simple and continuous present forms in questions and statements.
- ☐ I can write two paragraphs contrasting usual life with this week.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · What kind of present meaning is this?

Read each message. Decide whether it presents a routine, stable state, action happening now or temporary situation. Do not choose from a tense-labelled heading.

A01-01. Leo walks to school from Monday to Friday.

A01-02. Please wait. Leo is talking to the teacher at the moment.

A01-03. Our usual classroom is closed, so we are using Room 5 this week.

A01-04. I understand the instructions now.

A02 · Learn · The same time words can support different viewpoints

Read each pair. Explain the meaning contrast rather than naming only the verb form.

A02-01. Mina usually walks to school. This week, she is taking the bus because the road is closed.

A02-02. Kai needs help. The teacher is speaking to him now.

A02-03. Mina usually practises after school. This week, she is practising at lunch every day for the concert.

A02-04. The library normally uses the front entrance. It is using the side entrance currently while the front door is repaired.

A02-05. I like art club. At the moment, I am making a poster for it.

A03 · Notice · Meaning-first present-choice box

Read the box. Every scored decision uses the whole context.

A03-01. Routine or repeated event

A03-02. Stable state

A03-03. Action happening now

A03-04. Temporary situation around now

A03-05. Time words are evidence, not commands

A03-06. Present-simple form

A03-07. Present-continuous form

A03-08. State-verb guardrail

A03-09. Paragraph control

A03-10. Scope guardrail

A04 · Notice · Find the decisive meaning evidence

For each line, label ROUTINE, STATE, NOW or TEMPORARY. Then identify the words or context—not only one time expression—that support the choice.

A04-01. Maya often reads before bed.

A04-02. Maya is reading a message at the moment.

A04-03. The school is using a smaller hall this month because the main hall is closed.

A04-04. I know the answer now.

A04-06. Leo walks to school every day; it is his normal journey.

A04-07. Are the students working in the library now?

A04-08. Does the library normally open at eight?

A05 · Build · Build the form from the meaning

Complete each message. The context decides the present form; then apply accurate agreement, question or spelling rules.

A05-01. usual routine: Mina ____ (walk) home after school.

A05-02. visible now: Look! Mina ____ (run) towards the gate.

A05-03. temporary reason: Our room is closed, so we ____ (work) in the library this week.

A05-04. ordinary state despite now: I ____ (understand) the rule now.

A05-05. temporary repeated action: This week, Leo ____ (practise) at lunch every day because the concert is near.

A05-06. routine negative: Maya ____ (not/use) the bus normally.

A05-07. action-now question: what / the students / make / at the moment?

A05-08. two-frame contrast: normally / we / eat in the hall; this week / we / eat outside because the hall is closed

A06 · Choose · Choose from meaning, not a tense label

Choose the one accurate line for the full context. Every wrong option routes to a specific repair.

A06-01. This is Leo's normal journey from Monday to Friday.

- A. Leo is taking the bus every weekday. B. Leo takes the bus every weekday. C. Leo take the bus every weekday.

A06-02. The teacher points to Mina, who has a book open and is looking at its pages.

- A. Leo is runing to the gate. B. Leo is runs to the gate. C. Leo is running to the gate.

A06-10. Ask about an observable action happening now.

- A. What do the students making? B. What are the students making? C. What the students are making?

A06-11. The class normally uses paper, but a one-month trial is changing that practice.

- A. These days, the class is using tablets during the trial. B. The class normally uses tablets; this is not a trial.
C. These days, the class are using tablets during the trial.

A06-12. This is a stable preference, not an observable action.

- A. Mina is like art club. B. Mina is liking art club. C. Mina likes art club.

A07 · Use · Usual life and this week

Write in English without the decision box. You may use a real non-private school routine or invent a safe scenario.

A07-01. Plan two headings privately: USUAL LIFE and THIS WEEK. List three meaning points for each; do not write tense names as prompts.

A07-02. Write the usual-life paragraph in at least four sentences. Include two routines and one ordinary state.

A07-03. Write the this-week paragraph in at least four sentences. Include one temporary change and one action happening now.

A07-04. Include one sentence whose time expression could fit either form; make the reason or contrast decisive.

A07-05. Include one ordinary state sentence in either paragraph.

A07-06. Add one question and appropriate answer about the current temporary situation.

A07-07. Revise the complete two-paragraph contrast. Underline the meaning evidence for each form, then remove any tense-name scaffolds before submission.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the present-time decision

Each item has one primary target problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the meaning evidence.

A08-01. Maya is walking to school every day; the writer says this is her permanent normal routine.

A08-02. I am liking this club.

A08-03. A learner says: 'These days always means present continuous.'

A08-04. Does Mina walks home normally?

A08-05. The students working in Room 5 this week because their room is closed.

A08-06. Leo is runing towards the gate now.

A08-07. The THIS WEEK paragraph says: 'We usually use Room 8' although Room 8 is a temporary one-week change.

A08-08. The writer intends to show a temporary change from classroom study but writes only: 'She studies online this week.'

A08-09. Does Leo reading now? — Yes, he does.

A09 · Check · Use the full repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive meaning/form change → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the present-choice system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory.

A10-01. Name the four meaning categories used for present choices.

A10-02. Complete: Mina usually ____ (walk), but this week she ____ (take) the bus because the road is closed.

A10-03. Repair: I am needing a pencil now.

A10-04. Explain why every day does not decide the tense in: This week, Mina is practising every day for the concert.

A10-05. Repair: What does Leo carrying at the moment?

A10-06. Spell the forms: make → ____; run → ____; open → ____.

A10-07. Write one routine/state pair and one action-now/temporary pair without headings.

A10-08. Write a four-sentence mini-contrast between usual life and this week.

A11 · Reflect · What decided your form?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question should you ask before looking at a time expression?

A11-02. Why can now appear with the present simple?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1–4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or tense headings.

L0-01. Normal routine: Leo ____ (take) the bus every weekday.

L0-02. Temporary reason: His route is closed, so this week he ____ (walk) every day.

L0-03. Ordinary state: I ____ (understand) now.

L0-04. Visible action: Look! The children ____ (run) outside.

L0-05. Repair: Does Mina making a poster now?

L0-06. Write one routine/temporary contrast using a decisive reason.

L0-07. Write one state/action-now contrast.

L0-08. Write two linked sentences for a usual-life/this-week mini-paragraph.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the decision box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Our class normally ____ (use) books, but it ____ (try) tablets this month during a short pilot.

L1-02. Repair: These days means continuous, so I am knowing the new rule.

L1-03. Repair: The students is writing outside today because their room is closed.

L1-04. Explain the choice: This week, Mina is practising every day because the concert is on Friday.

L1-05. Write one question about a routine and one about an action happening now; answer both.

L1-06. Write two short paragraphs of two sentences each: normal life, then a temporary current change.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M07

In S7-M07 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve present-time choices among mixed time frames. No present-tense heading is shown.

L2-01. Choose the present routine: A. Yesterday Leo walked home. B. Leo usually walks home. C. Leo is walking home at this exact moment.

L2-02. Choose the temporary current situation: A. We normally use Room 4. B. We used Room 4 yesterday. C. Our room is closed, so we are using Room 6 this week.

L2-03. Repair the present state: I am understanding the story now.

L2-04. Repair the current question: What do the students writing at the moment?

L2-05. Write one sentence each for a finished past event, present routine and action happening now.

L2-06. Write a four-sentence current report that does not drift into the surrounding narrative-past frame.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M11 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen school-change task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent two-paragraph production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Our class usually is using books, but this month we try tablets during a short pilot.

L3-02. Edit: I am needing help now, and the teacher explains the answer at this exact moment.

L3-03. Edit: Does the class using Room 8 this week? — Yes, it does.

L3-04. Write an unseen two-paragraph report of at least eight sentences: usual school life, then a clearly temporary change this week. Include one state, one action now, one question/answer and one time expression whose meaning is made decisive by context.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

Your goals

- ☐ I can distinguish a present routine from a completed event in a finished past time.
- ☐ I can use regular and common irregular past forms accurately.
- ☐ I can make lexical past negatives and questions with did plus the base form, and use was/were separately.
- ☐ I can write and ask questions about a coherent recent finished event.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · Finished time or usual routine?

Read each message. Decide whether it tells a usual present routine or one or more events inside a completed past time.

A01-01. Mina usually walks to school.

A01-02. Mina walked to school yesterday because the bus did not arrive.

A01-03. Our club meets every Friday.

A01-04. Last Friday, our club met in the library and made a poster.

A02 · Learn · A completed time frame changes the story

Read each pair. Explain the time-frame contrast before naming forms.

A02-01. Leo usually plays football after school. Yesterday, he played basketball instead.

A02-02. Maya often sees her cousin. Two days ago, she saw her at the market.

A02-03. We normally have lunch at school. Last week, we had lunch in the park once.

A02-04. Kai did not take the bus yesterday. He walked home instead.

A02-05. When did Mina arrive? She arrived at six.

A03 · Notice · Finished-past meaning and form box

Read the complete box. Use the finished time frame and message together; a time expression is evidence, not a magic switch.

A03-01. Core meaning

A03-02. Regular affirmative

A03-03. Common irregular affirmative

A03-04. Lexical-verb negative

A03-05. Lexical-verb question

A03-06. Short answers

A03-07. Past be

A04 · Notice · Find the finished frame and past carrier

For each line, identify (1) the routine or finished-event meaning, (2) the decisive evidence and (3) where past marking appears.

A04-01. Mina usually walks home.

A04-02. Mina walked home yesterday.

A04-03. Leo saw the match two days ago.

A04-04. Leo didn't see the match yesterday.

A04-05. Did Leo see the match last week?

A04-06. The pupils were in Room 4 yesterday.

A04-07. When did the club meet?

A04-08. We arrived, then we made a poster and eventually left.

A05 · Build · Build accurate finished-event messages

Complete each message from its meaning. Use one past carrier only in lexical negatives/questions, and use the separate was/were system for be.

A05-01. finished affirmative: Yesterday, Mina ____ (walk) home.

A05-02. regular spelling: Last week, Leo ____ (study) for the quiz.

A05-03. regular spelling: The bus ____ (stop) near the library yesterday.

A06-09. The story frame is last Saturday; all three actions finished.

- A. We arrived, then make a poster and eventually left. B. We arrive, then made a poster and eventually leave.
C. We arrived, then made a poster and eventually left.

A06-10. Choose the accurate question and short answer.

- A. Did Mina go? — Yes, she went. B. Did Mina go? — Yes, she did. C. Did Mina went? — Yes, she did.

A06-11. A date alone must fit the intended completed event.

- A. In 2024, our class made a model garden for one project. B. In 2024, our class makes a model garden for one project. C. In 2024, our class did made a model garden for one project.

A06-12. Choose the accurately formed past-be question.

- A. Did the pupils were ready? B. Were ready the pupils? C. Were the pupils ready?

A07 · Use · A recent finished event

Write and ask about a real non-private recent event or invent a safe school/community event. Do not use the form box during the first attempt.

A07-01. Choose one clearly finished time, such as yesterday or last Saturday, and list five event points privately.

A07-02. Write an opening that establishes the finished time and place.

A07-03. Write at least five linked event sentences. Use two regular and three common irregular past forms.

A07-04. Use two of then, afterwards and eventually without letting those words replace verb-form decisions.

A07-05. Add one accurate negative about something that did not happen.

A07-06. Ask two questions about the event and write matching short or information answers.

A07-07. Revise and submit at least eight connected sentences plus the two questions. Check that the finished frame never changes accidentally.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the finished-event system

Each item has one primary problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive meaning or form evidence.

A08-01. Yesterday, Mina walks home.

A08-02. Leo stoped near the gate last week.

A08-03. We goed to the library two days ago.

A08-04. Maya didn't wrote the note.

A08-05. Did the pupils were ready yesterday?

A08-06. Kai not took the bus yesterday.

A08-07. A learner says: 'Yesterday automatically makes every nearby verb past.'

A08-08. Last Saturday, we arrived, then make a poster and eventually leave.

A08-09. When Leo did arrive? — At six.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive time/form change → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the finished-event system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory.

A10-01. Explain the central contrast: Mina usually walks home / Mina walked home yesterday.

A10-02. Write the regular past forms: live, study, stop, open.

A10-03. Write the common irregular past forms: go, see, have, make, take, write.

A10-04. Repair: Did Maya went home?

A10-05. Repair: The pupils didn't be tired.

A10-06. Build a question and short answer from: Leo / see the match / yesterday / yes.

A10-07. Write a negative sentence with didn't and the base form of an irregular verb.

A10-08. Write three linked finished events using then and afterwards.

A10-09. Write one present-routine/finished-event contrast without headings.

A11 · Reflect · What carried the past meaning?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What meaning question comes before form choice?

A11-02. Why is didn't went inaccurate?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what response/retry evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1–4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a past-tense heading.

L0-01. Normal routine: Maya ____ (walk) home every day.

L0-02. Finished event: Maya ____ (walk) home yesterday.

L0-03. Irregular: We ____ (take) the bus last week.

L0-04. Negative: Leo ____ (not/see) the match.

L0-05. Past be question: the pupils / ready / yesterday?

L0-06. Write one accurate information question about a finished event.

L0-07. Write three finished events in order using one sequence link.

L0-08. Explain where past marking appears in: Did Mina write?

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the form box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Our club usually ____ (meet) on Friday, but last week it ____ (meet) on Thursday.

L1-02. Repair: Yesterday, the bus stoped and we goed home.

L1-03. Repair: Did Maya wrote the notes? — Yes, she wrote.

L1-04. Repair: The pupils didn't be in class yesterday.

L1-05. Write two questions and answers about an invented finished school event.

L1-06. Write a five-sentence finished sequence using two regular and two irregular past forms.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M08

In S7-M08 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve finished-event choices among mixed present and past meanings without a tense heading.

L2-01. Choose the finished event: A. Leo usually sees the bus. B. Leo saw the bus yesterday. C. Leo is seeing the bus now.

L2-02. Choose the accurate negative: A. Maya didn't took it. B. Maya not take it. C. Maya didn't take it.

L2-03. Repair: Were Leo at school?

L2-04. Repair: Last Monday, we arrived, then make a poster.

L2-05. Write one present routine and two linked finished past events about the same safe topic.

L2-06. Write and answer one question about a completed event, then state one later result without teaching a background-in-progress contrast.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M12 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen event task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Last week our class go to the hall, made a poster and eventually leave.

L3-02. Edit: Did Mina saw the display? — Yes, she saw.

L3-03. Edit: The pupils didn't be late, but the teacher weren't ready.

L3-04. Write an unseen account of at least eight connected sentences about a clearly finished safe event. Include two regular forms, three irregular forms, one negative, two questions/answers and two sequence links.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

- ☐ I can use when, while, as and sequence links from their meaning rather than mechanically.
- ☐ I can tell a coherent four-frame story with clear background and main events.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · What was already happening? What changed?

Read each mini-story. Identify the activity already in progress and the completed event that changes or advances the story.

A01-01. Mina was walking home when she saw a lost dog.

A01-02. While the pupils were making a poster, the lights went out.

A01-03. As Leo was opening the gate, his bag fell.

A01-04. Maya was reading. Meanwhile, Kai was drawing.

A02 · Learn · View the same past time in two ways

Explain each relationship from event structure, not from sentence length or one linking word.

A02-01. The pupils were leaving the hall when the alarm rang.

A02-02. When the teacher entered, the pupils were talking quietly.

A02-03. While Mina was carrying the model, Leo opened the door.

A02-04. While Mina was drawing, Leo was writing labels.

A02-05. The film lasted two hours, but the door opened in one second.

A03 · Notice · Narrative event-and-background box

Read the complete box. The relationship between situations decides the viewpoint; a long sentence or linking word does not decide it alone.

A05-07. background question: what / the pupils / do / when the bell rang?

A05-08. finished-event question: what / happen / while the pupils were working?

A05-09. initial time clause punctuation: while / we / wait / the bus arrived

A05-10. story order: we heard a sound; next / we opened the door; after that / a bird flew out; finally / we closed it

A06 · Choose · Choose by event structure

Choose the one best line for the complete narrative context. Every distractor routes to a specific repair.

A06-01. The walk was already in progress; seeing the dog changed the story.

- A. Mina walked home when she was seeing a dog. B. Mina was walking home when she saw a dog. C. Mina was walk home when she did see a dog.

A06-02. The pupils' work was in progress when one completed event occurred.

- A. While the pupils were working, the lights went out. B. While the pupils worked, the lights were going out.

A06-12. The linking word has a clear time meaning; carrying is in progress and the fall is completed.

- A. As Kai was carrying the box, it was falling. B. As Kai carried the box, it was falling for one second. C. As Kai was carrying the box, it fell.

A07 · Use · A four-frame story

Sketch four simple frames or use four teacher-approved pictures. Tell a real non-private story or invent a safe school/community story. Do not use the form box during the first attempt.

A07-01. Plan four frames: setting, activity in progress, story-changing event, result. Use meaning notes only, not tense names.

A07-02. Write a two-sentence opening that establishes the finished time and background.

A07-03. Write two sentences in which a completed event changes an activity already in progress.

A07-04. Use when and one of while/as in clear time meanings. Change clause order once.

A07-05. Add either two simultaneous in-progress activities or one background state.

A07-06. Use two sequence links from then, afterwards, eventually, next, after that or finally.

A07-07. Revise and submit at least eight connected sentences for the four frames. Underline the event that changes the story and circle its background.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the narrative relationship

Each item has one primary problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive event-structure evidence.

A08-01. The film was lasting two hours because it was long.

A08-02. The pupils was working when the bell rang.

A08-03. Mina was runing home when she fell.

A08-04. When Leo did arrived, Maya was drawing.

A08-05. Both activities continued, but the writer says: While Maya read, Leo was drawing.

A08-06. While the class was working the lights went out.

A08-07. A learner says: 'Meanwhile always makes the next verb past continuous.'

A08-08. Yesterday we were making a poster when the bell rang. Next, we open the door and left.

A08-09. It was being cold when the team left.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive event/background change → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the narrative system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory.

A10-01. Explain background activity versus story-changing event without using long/short as the reason.

A10-02. Complete: Mina ____ (walk) home when she ____ (see) the dog.

A10-03. Repair: The pupils was work when the lights went out.

A10-04. Repair: When Leo did arrived, Maya was drawing.

A10-05. Write two simultaneous in-progress activities using while.

A10-06. Write a past background state plus one completed event.

A10-07. Write one initial time clause and punctuate it accurately.

A10-08. Write three completed story events using two sequence links.

A10-09. Write a four-sentence mini-story with a background, event and result.

A11 · Reflect · What changed the story?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question should replace the long-action/short-action rule?

A11-02. Why does when not automatically select one tense?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what response/retry evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a narrative-tense heading.

L0-01. Maya ____ (read) when the door ____ (open).

L0-02. While the pupils ____ (work), the teacher ____ (arrive).

L0-03. Both activities continued: While Mina ____ (draw), Leo ____ (write).

L0-04. Repair: As Kai carried the box, it was falling suddenly.

L0-05. Repair punctuation: When the bell rang the pupils were talking.

L0-06. Write one background-state/event pair.

L0-07. Write one background-activity/event pair with reversed clause order.

L0-08. Write a three-event result sequence using next and finally.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the event/background box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. The class ____ (leave) when the alarm ____ (ring).

L1-02. Repair: While we waited, the bus was arriving suddenly.

L1-03. Repair: What did Maya doing when Leo arrived?

L1-04. Repair: It was being dark when we left.

L1-05. Write a when sentence and a while sentence that express the same clear event/background relationship.

L1-06. Write a five-sentence safe story with one background, one change, one parallel activity and a final result.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M09

In S7-M09 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve narrative choices among finished-event and present-perfect meanings without a narrative-tense heading.

L2-01. Choose the clear event/background relation: A. Mina walked when she was seeing a dog. B. Mina was walking when she saw a dog. C. Mina has walked when she saw a dog.

L2-02. Choose two simultaneous activities: A. While Leo was reading, Maya was drawing. B. While Leo read, Maya drew one picture. C. While Leo has read, Maya drew.

L2-03. Repair: When the teacher did entered, the pupils were talking.

L2-04. Repair: Meanwhile always means continuous, so the door was opening suddenly.

L2-05. Write one completed past event, one background activity and one unspecified experience-to-now statement; label only the intended meanings after writing.

L2-06. Write a four-sentence narrative return that keeps its finished frame and does not replace event structure with one connector rule.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M13 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen illustrated-story task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: The film was lasting two hours because it was long. Near the end, the lights were going out suddenly.

L3-02. Edit: While the pupils was working the teacher did entered.

L3-03. Edit: It was being cold, and Mina was knowing the way home.

L3-04. Write an unseen four-frame story of at least eight connected sentences. Include one background activity, one story-changing event, two simultaneous activities or a background state, when plus while/as, and two sequence links.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

A01 · Learn · Past before now: which connection matters?

Read each message. Decide whether it presents an experience at an unspecified time before now, a recent event with a result now, or an event at a definite finished past time.

A01-01. Mina has visited a science museum, but she does not say when.

A01-02. Leo has just finished the poster, so it is ready now.

A01-03. Mina visited the science museum last Friday.

A01-04. The bus has not arrived yet, so we are still waiting.

A02 · Learn · Experience, result now and finished detail

Explain why each speaker chooses a connection to now or a finished-time report. Do not choose from one signal word alone.

A02-01. Have you ever tried rock climbing? — Yes, I have.

A02-02. When did you try it? — I tried it last year.

A02-03. Maya has already sent the message, so you can read it now.

A02-04. Kai has never ridden a horse.

A02-05. We saw the film yesterday, but we have not discussed it yet.

A03 · Notice · Present-perfect meaning and form box

A06-12. Choose the coherent third-person report of one experience and one finished detail.

- A. Mina has visited a museum. She has visited it last Friday. B. Mina visited a museum last Friday. She does not report any broader experience. C. Mina has visited a museum. She went last Friday.

A07 · Use · Experience interview and present-result report

Interview a partner using safe, non-private topics, or use invented answers if preferred. Do not ask for sensitive personal information. Complete the first attempt without the form box.

A07-01. Plan four safe experience topics such as trying a food, visiting a public place, making something or joining a school activity.

A07-02. Write four Have you ever ...? questions using at least two irregular past participles.

A07-03. Record four short answers. Invent answers if privacy or memory is a concern.

A07-04. For one yes answer, ask When ...? or Where ...? and record a past-simple finished detail.

A07-05. Write two third-person experience reports about the partner or invented person.

A07-06. Add one present-result report using just, already or yet plus an explicit result now.

A07-07. Revise and submit the four questions/answers, one finished-detail exchange, two experience reports and one present-result report.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the past-to-now connection

Each item has one primary problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive time or result evidence.

A08-01. I have visited the museum last Friday.

A08-02. The pupils has already finished.

A08-03. Maya has wrote three labels.

A08-04. Kai hasn't never ridden a horse.

A08-05. Did Maya ever taken part? — Yes, she did.

A08-06. Rewrite for the module's neutral controlled placement: Have the pupils yet finished?

A08-07. Have you ever visited the museum? — Yes. — When have you visited it?

A08-08. The writer intends a present-result message but writes only: 'Leo finished a poster recently.'

A08-09. Mina has visited a museum. She has went last Friday.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive time/result change → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the present-perfect system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory.

A10-01. Explain unspecified experience, present result and definite finished-past detail.

A10-02. Build: Maya / ever / take part in a quiz? / yes

A10-03. Write the participles: see, write, take, break, ride.

A10-04. Repair: I have seen the film yesterday.

A10-05. Repair: Kai hasn't never wrote a blog post.

A10-06. Write one negative with yet and a clear result now.

A10-07. Write one affirmative with just or already and a clear result now.

A10-08. Write one experience question, answer it, then add one finished-time follow-up detail.

A10-09. Write a four-sentence mini-report containing one experience, one present result and one finished detail without frame drift.

A11 · Reflect · What connects to now?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question should you ask before choosing present perfect or past simple?

A11-02. Why does recently not automatically require the present perfect?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what response/retry evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a tense heading.

L0-01. Experience: Mina ____ (visit) a science museum.

L0-02. Finished detail: She ____ (go) last Friday.

L0-03. Recent result: Leo ____ just ____ (break) his pencil, so he cannot write.

L0-04. Negative up to now: The bus ____ (not/arrive) yet.

L0-05. Repair: Has Maya ever wrote a blog? — Yes, she did.

L0-06. Write one never experience statement.

L0-07. Write one experience question and past-simple finished follow-up.

L0-08. Write one present-result report with explicit evidence now.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the meaning/form box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Have you ever ____ (see) a live show? — Yes, I ____.

L1-02. Repair: I have seen one last year.

L1-03. Repair: Maya have already wrote the labels.

L1-04. The writer intends the neutral meaning 'not completed up to now'. Repair: The team hasn't finished already, so we are still waiting.

L1-05. Write two safe experience questions, answers and one finished-time follow-up.

L1-06. Write a five-sentence report with one experience, one never statement, one present result and one finished detail.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M10

In S7-M10 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve experience/result choices among duration and finished-time meanings without a present-perfect heading.

L2-01. Choose the unspecified experience: A. Mina visited last Friday. B. Mina has visited a science museum. C. Mina has visited in 2024.

L2-02. Choose the current result: A. Leo broke his pencil yesterday and replaced it. B. Leo has just broken his pencil, so he cannot write now. C. Leo has broken his pencil last week.

L2-03. Repair: Has Maya ever took part? — Yes, she did.

L2-04. Repair: The bus hasn't arrived already, so we are still waiting.

L2-05. Write one unspecified experience, one completed event at a finished time and one duration-to-now statement; label meanings only after writing.

L2-06. Write a four-sentence mixed-time return without combining the target present perfect with a definite finished time.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M14 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen interview/report task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Have you ever saw a live show? — Yes, I did. I have seen one last year.

L3-02. Edit: Maya have just wrote the labels, so they are ready now.

L3-03. Edit: The pupils haven't never finished yet, so the teacher is still waiting.

L3-04. Conduct or invent an unseen four-question safe experience interview and write an eight-sentence report. Include two irregular participles, one never answer, one past-simple finished follow-up and one just/already/yet present result with explicit evidence now.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

Your goals

- ☐ I can distinguish a starting point from a duration and use since or for accurately.
- ☐ I can show whether a situation continues now or ended in a finished past period.
- ☐ I can use so far and recently from the complete intended viewpoint rather than as automatic tense triggers.
- ☐ I can write and check a safe time line with matching start, duration, now and endpoint information.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · A time line that reaches now

Read each time line. Decide whether the situation continues now, ended before now, or counts progress up to now. Meaning comes before the time expression.

A01-01. This time line's NOW point is March. Mina joined the chess club in September. She is still a member now.

A01-02. Mina was a member from September to December. She left the club in December.

A01-03. Our class began the book this month. We have read four chapters so far, and the book is not finished.

A01-04. Leo moved here in 2023 and still lives here now.

A02 · Learn · Starting point, duration and finished period

Explain the time relationship in each complete context. Do not choose a form from since, for or recently alone.

A02-01. Mina has been a chess-club member since September, and she is still a member now.

A02-02. Mina has been a chess-club member for six months, and she is still a member now.

A02-03. Mina was a member for three months, but she left in December.

A02-04. We have read four chapters so far, and we are continuing the book.

A02-05. Leo has read two books recently, and he is choosing a third one now. He read one of them last Tuesday.

A03 · Notice · Duration and time-choice box

Read the complete box. Time expressions support meaning; they do not select a tense mechanically.

A03-01. Situation continuing now

A03-02. Since = starting point

A03-03. For = duration

A07 · Use · A safe time line that reaches now

Choose a safe, non-private school, hobby or invented situation. Do not disclose sensitive personal information. Complete the first attempt without the form box.

A07-01. Choose or invent one continuing situation such as club membership, knowing a friend, owning an object or being in a class or team.

A07-02. Record the starting point and the duration without writing a full sentence yet.

A07-03. Write one present-perfect sentence with since and explicit evidence that the situation is still true now.

A07-04. Express the same continuing situation with for and the matching duration.

A07-05. Add one How long ...? question and an accurate answer.

A07-06. Add one finished-past contrast about an earlier situation that has ended.

A07-07. Revise and submit a six-sentence time line containing the start, duration, current evidence, question/answer, so-far or recent progress, and finished contrast.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the time line

Each item has one primary problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive start, duration, now or endpoint evidence.

A08-01. Mina has been a member for September.

A08-02. Leo has lived there from 2021 to 2023; he lives elsewhere now.

A08-03. Kai have had the bicycle for a year.

A10-06. Write one progress count with so far and evidence that the activity is unfinished.

A10-07. Write a four-sentence time line with one since sentence, one for sentence and one finished contrast.

A10-08. S7-M03 L3: Write one present-simple question about a class routine and answer with often in a neutral position.

A10-09. S7-M07 L2: Complete the story: While Maya ____ (carry) the posters, one sheet ____ (fall).

A11 · Reflect · What does the time line show?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What should you mark before choosing a form?

A11-02. Why do since, for and recently not automatically choose a tense?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what response/retry evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

A07 · Use · Respectful school role-play

Work with a partner or use an invented dialogue. Choose safe, non-private school situations. Respect refusals and never pressure another person. Complete the first attempt without the form box.

A07-01. Choose three situations: one ability check, one permission need and one request for help or an object.

A07-02. Write one current or past-general ability statement and one matching ability question.

A07-03. Write one neutral or formal permission exchange using Can I, Could I or May I.

A07-04. Write one neutral request with Can you and a respectful response.

A07-05. Write one more tentative request with Could you and a respectful response.

A07-06. Perform or read the dialogue, then revise any function, base-verb or response problem.

A07-07. Submit an eight-turn dialogue containing ability, permission, neutral request, tentative request, acceptance and respectful refusal.

A08 · Check · Diagnose function, form and interaction

Each item has one primary problem. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive function, time or relationship clue.

A08-01. The writer intends permission but asks: Can you borrow my ruler?

A08-02. She can to draw maps.

A08-03. When Mina was eight, she can read chapter books.

A08-04. The writer wants a tentative request but writes: Can you repeat that?

A08-05. A pupil entering a formal meeting says only: I enter now?

A08-06. Could I borrow the ruler? — Yes, you could.

A08-07. The writer intends a school rule but says: You can't enter the lab because you do not know the door code.

A08-08. May you explain the question, please?

A08-09. Could I use the scissors? — Yes, I can. — Could I pass them to me?

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive function/time/relationship evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the modal-function system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8–9 are governed delayed returns from S7-M04 and S7-M08.

A10-01. Explain ability, permission and an action request without naming a modal first.

A10-02. Build one current-ability and one past-general-ability sentence.

A10-03. Build a formal permission question for entering a room.

A10-04. Repair: Does Maya can use the program?

A10-05. Repair: May you pass the glue, please?

A10-06. Write one permission exchange and one action-request exchange; make the functions unmistakable.

A10-07. Write a four-turn school dialogue with one respectful refusal and no pressure after it.

A10-08. S7-M04 L3: Write a two-sentence update containing one usual routine and one different action happening now; make the meanings decisive.

A10-09. S7-M08 L2: A notice asks whether Mina has any museum experience; it does not ask how long or when. Choose the matching line: A. Mina visited a museum last Friday. B. Mina has visited a museum, but she does not say when. C. Mina has been a museum-club member for six months and still is.

A11 · Reflect · What function and relationship matter?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What should you identify before choosing can, could or may?

A11-02. Why does could not always mean past time?

A11-03. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what response/retry evidence shows this?

A11-04. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a modal-function heading.

L0-01. Current ability: Kai ____ solve the puzzle.

L0-02. Past general ability: At age eight, Mina ____ read chapter books.

L0-03. Formal permission to enter a room.

L0-04. Tentative request for another person to repeat an instruction.

L0-05. Repair: She can draws maps.

L0-06. Repair: Could I borrow it? — Yes, you could.

L0-07. Write one line where can't clearly means inability and one where it clearly means no permission.

L0-08. Write one three-turn permission/request exchange with a natural response.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the meaning/form box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. When Leo was six, he ____ (not/swim).

L1-02. Repair: Does Maya can use the printer?

L1-03. Repair: May you hold this poster, please?

L1-04. Write one neutral permission request and one formal permission request for different school relationships.

L1-05. Write one neutral action request and one more tentative action request, each with a natural response.

L1-06. Write a six-turn safe or invented school dialogue with ability, permission, request and respectful refusal.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M12

In S7-M12 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve ability/permission/request meanings among later possibility meanings without a modal-labelled heading.

L2-01. Choose current ability: A. Kai may solve it, perhaps. B. Kai can solve it; he knows how. C. Can Kai solve it for me?

L2-02. Choose formal permission: A. May I enter, please? B. May you enter me? C. I may enter?

L2-03. Repair the intended action request: May you explain this line?

L2-04. Repair: When she was seven, Mina can read short books.

L2-05. Write one ability statement, one permission exchange and one request exchange; label functions only after writing.

L2-06. Write a four-turn mixed-modal interaction without treating may-possibility as permission or request.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M16 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen school-interaction task in English. An external checker must verify both mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Does Leo can swim now? — Yes, he can swims.

L3-02. Edit the intended formal permission exchange: May you enter the room? — Yes, I may.

L3-03. Edit the intended tentative request: Can you help me? — Of course.

L3-04. Write an unseen eight-turn safe school dialogue. Include present or past-general ability, neutral/formal permission, neutral/tentative action requests, acceptance and respectful refusal.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

A01 · Learn · What kind of message is this?

Read each fictional club notice. Decide whether it gives an obligation, practical necessity, advice, prohibition or absence of necessity.

A01-01. All members must sign in before the club starts.

A01-02. We have to leave by five because the building closes then.

A01-03. New members should bring a bottle of water.

A01-04. Visitors must not enter the equipment room.

A01-05. You do not have to bring paper; the club provides it.

A02 · Learn · Necessity, advice and the negative contrast

Explain what creates the message and whether the listener has a choice. Positive must and have to can overlap, so use the complete context.

A02-01. We need to charge the tablet before the activity.

A02-02. You ought to check the weather before the outdoor club meets.

A02-03. You must not use the machine without a teacher. You do not have to use it today.

A02-04. The club leader says, 'Members must wear badges.' Mina reports, 'We have to wear badges.'

A03 · Notice · Obligation, necessity and advice box

Read the whole box. Identify meaning and source first; then check whether the form is a modal, ought to, or an ordinary verb pattern.

A03-01. Strong obligation or direct rule

A03-02. Reported or external necessity

A03-03. Practical necessity

A03-04. Advice

A03-05. Prohibition

A03-06. No necessity

A03-07. Core form groups

A07 · Use · Create a balanced fictional club guide

Create a fictional or teacher-approved club guide; do not present invented lines as real school policy. Use safe, age-appropriate requirements and explain reasons respectfully. Complete the first attempt without the form box.

A07-01. Name the fictional club, its activity and the audience for the guide.

A07-02. Write two genuine obligations: one direct rule and one externally caused requirement. Explain each with because or so.

A07-03. Write one practical necessity with need to and explain the goal.

A07-04. Write one safety prohibition with must not/mustn't.

A07-05. Write one optional action with do/does not have to.

A07-06. Write two recommendations, one with should and one with ought to; add one example or reason.

A07-07. Submit and explain a balanced seven-line guide, then repair any strength, negative-meaning, form or coherence problem.

A08 · Check · Diagnose meaning, source and form

Each item has one primary problem or false claim. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive requirement, choice or form clue.

A08-01. A safety officer says eye protection is compulsory: You should wear eye protection.

A08-02. A note claims: Have to can never express a rule; only must is possible.

A08-03. The writer intends prohibition: You don't have to enter the equipment room.

A08-04. She musts bring her badge.

A08-05. Does Mina has to leave at five?

A08-06. You ought check the weather.

A08-07. You don't need bring paper.

A08-08. The module writer tests deduction as a rule: Leo's bicycle is outside, so he must be in the club room.

A08-09. Repair the contradictory guide: Members must bring all tools. Members don't have to bring any tools. You should never enter the store room.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive obligation/choice/form evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the obligation system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8–9 are governed delayed returns from S7-M05 and S7-M09.

A10-01. Explain obligation, practical necessity, advice, prohibition and no necessity without naming a form first.

A10-02. State the three form groups for must/should, ought to, and have/need.

A10-03. Write one direct rule and one report of an external requirement; keep the contexts decisive.

A10-04. Repair the intended prohibition: You don't have to share the door code.

A10-05. Ask whether members are required to book a place.

A10-06. Write one should recommendation and one ought to recommendation.

A10-07. Write a five-line fictional club notice containing a rule, necessity, advice, prohibition and optional action.

A10-08. S7-M05 L3: Write four sentences about one club: two usual routines and two different temporary actions happening this week. Make each time meaning decisive.

A10-09. S7-M09 L2: A profile says Mina joined the club six months ago and is still a member. Choose the line that expresses the full start-duration-now meaning: A. Mina joined the club six months ago. B. Mina has been a club member for six months. C. Mina is being a club member for six months.

A11 · Reflect · What requirement and choice matter?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question separates must not from do not have to?

A11-02. Why is must versus have to not a perfect two-box rule?

A11-03. How do you separate a rule from advice?

A11-04. What form difference makes ought to unusual in this set?

A11-05. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what retry evidence shows this?

A11-06. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0-06. Repair: She musts wear a badge.

L0-07. Write one need to necessity and explain the goal.

L0-08. Write a four-line balanced notice: obligation, advice, prohibition and no necessity.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the meaning/form box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Repair the intended no-necessity line: You mustn't bring a camera; the club can lend you one.

L1-02. Repair: Does Leo has to stay late?

L1-03. Repair: Members ought arrive early.

L1-04. Write one direct rule and one external necessity; explain why each wording is a good fit but not the only grammatical possibility.

L1-05. Write one prohibited action and one optional action in the same fictional club.

L1-06. Write a six-line fictional guide with obligation, need, two advice forms, prohibition and no necessity.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M13

In S7-M13 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve M11 meanings inside an event-plan context and keep S7-M12 possibility separate.

L2-01. Choose the strict club rule, not a possibility or recommendation: A. Members might arrive at eight. B. Members should arrive by eight. C. Members must arrive by eight.

L2-02. Choose no necessity: A. You mustn't bring food. B. You don't have to bring food; snacks are provided. C. You should bring food because it is required.

L2-03. Repair: If you join the trip, you should pay by Friday; payment is compulsory.

L2-04. Write a four-line event note with one requirement, one practical necessity, one recommendation and one optional action.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M17 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen club-comparison task in English. An external checker must verify mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit the intended prohibition: Members don't have to share the door code.

L3-02. A note claims this line is wrong because an external reason can only use have to: Mina must leave early because her bus departs at five.

L3-03. Edit the advice form: New members ought bring water, but it is not a rule.

L3-04. Compare two fictional clubs, then write an unseen seven-line guide for your preferred club. Include obligation, external/practical necessity, advice, prohibition and no necessity.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

- A. The event is probably nearly full. B. The event is probable nearly full. C. The event mights be nearly full.

A06-10. Choose the accurate statement about may and might.

- A. May always means exactly 60% and might exactly 30%. B. Might is always impossible when may is possible. C. May and might overlap; might can sound more tentative, but context controls the claim.

A06-11. Choose the coherent set: one possible outcome, one probable outcome and one strong evidence-based conclusion.

- A. It must rain, although the sky is clear. The match might certainly move. The locked hall perhaps be open. B. It may rain. The match will probably move indoors. The locked, dark hall must be empty. C. It probably rain. The match may to move. The hall must empty.

A06-12. Choose the accurate scope boundary for this module.

- A. We can use will probably and perhaps ... will without scoring the full will/be going to contrast yet. B. Every future sentence must use will because be going to is wrong. C. M12 assigns exact percentages to may, might and probably.

A07 · Use · Create a justified event forecast

Create a fictional or teacher-approved weather/event forecast; do not present invented information as a real forecast or school announcement. Use safe, age-appropriate evidence and complete the first attempt without the certainty box.

A07-01. Name the fictional event, time and evidence sources available to the speaker.

A07-02. Write two genuinely possible outcomes: one with may and one with might.

A07-03. Write one probable prediction with will probably and justify it.

A07-04. Write one possible prediction beginning with Perhaps.

A07-05. Write one strong present deduction with must and state the decisive evidence.

A07-06. Add eight short review lines: ability with can; a polite request with could; permission with may; obligation with must; external necessity with have to; practical necessity with need to; advice with should or ought to; and a must not/do not have to negative contrast. Label each function.

A07-07. Submit and explain a coherent six-claim forecast, then repair any certainty, function, form, placement or evidence problem.

A08 · Check · Diagnose certainty, function and form

Each item has one primary problem or false claim. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive certainty, function, form or evidence clue.

A08-01. There is one weak forecast, so the match must move indoors.

A08-02. A certainty chart says may always equals 60% and might always equals 30%.

A08-03. The bus might arrives after six.

A08-04. The concert will probable move indoors.

A08-05. The rain perhaps to stop before lunch.

A08-07. For one uncertain forecast, the workbook insists: It can rain at three is always the best target.

A08-08. The rule says visitors must sign in. A learner labels must as a strong deduction.

A08-09. The report says: It must rain because rain is possible. It may certainly stop. Perhaps the event move indoors.

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive certainty/function/form evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the possibility system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8-9 are governed delayed returns from S7-M06 and S7-M10.

A10-01. Explain possible, probable and strong-evidence conclusion without naming a form first.

A10-02. State the core forms for may/might, probably and perhaps.

A10-03. Write one may prediction and one might prediction without inventing a fixed percentage difference.

A10-04. Repair: The event will probable finish early.

A10-05. Write a strong present deduction from two stated pieces of evidence.

A10-06. Distinguish can general possibility from one specific uncertain forecast.

A10-07. Write a five-line event forecast using may, might, will probably, perhaps and deduction must.

A10-08. S7-M06 L3: Complete the delayed finished-event gate. Edit: (1) Last week our class go to the hall, made a poster and eventually leave. (2) Did Mina saw the display? — Yes, she saw. (3) The pupils didn't be late, but the teacher weren't ready. Then write an unseen account of at least eight connected sentences about a clearly finished safe event, including two regular forms, three irregular forms, one negative, two questions/answers and two sequence links. Record the external check and any corrected retry.

A10-09. S7-M10 L2: Complete the delayed modal-function return. Choose current ability from may-perhaps/can-knows-how/can-request options; choose a formal permission request; repair May you explain this line? and When she was seven, Mina can read short books; then write one ability statement, one permission exchange, one request exchange and a four-turn mixed-modal interaction. Label functions only after writing.

A11 · Reflect · What evidence supports the claim?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question helps you choose possible, probable or strong deduction?

A11-02. Why is may versus might not a fixed percentage ladder?

A11-03. How can you distinguish deduction must from obligation must?

A11-04. Why are probably and perhaps not modal verbs?

A11-05. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what retry evidence shows this?

A11-06. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a possibility heading.

L0-01. Possible forecast: The sky ____ clear later.

L0-02. Probable forecast: The match ____ start outside.

L0-03. Repair: Perhaps the rain to stop soon.

L0-04. Strong deduction from a locked dark hall: The event ____ be over.

L0-05. Repair: The bus might arrives late.

L0-06. Label the function: May I open the window?

L0-07. Write one general can possibility and one specific may/might prediction.

L0-08. Write a four-line forecast: two possible outcomes, one probable outcome and one strong deduction.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the certainty/form box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Repair the overclaim: One forecast mentions showers, so it must rain.

L1-02. Repair: The event will probable end at four.

L1-03. Repair: The doors might opens early.

L1-04. Write one obligation must and one deduction must; state the decisive function clue.

L1-05. Explain why may and might cannot be assigned universal percentages, then write one of each.

L1-06. Write a six-line fictional forecast with may, might, probably, perhaps, general can and deduction must.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M14

In S7-M14 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve M12 certainty while reporting event claims. Reported-language transformations are checked separately by the host module.

L2-01. Choose the possible report, not a rule or strong deduction: A. The organiser says the event might finish early. B. The organiser says visitors must leave early. C. The organiser says the locked hall must be empty.

L2-02. Choose the probable claim: A. Perhaps the match will move. B. The match will probably move indoors because three forecasts agree. C. The match must move indoors because movement is possible.

L2-03. Repair the reported possibility form: Mina says the bus might arrives late.

L2-04. Write a four-line report containing two possible claims, one probable claim and one strong deduction.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M18 or the timetable equivalent, complete the unseen three-option event task in English. An external checker must verify mixed editing and independent prediction/recommendation after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit the possible forecast: The outdoor show may moves indoors.

L3-02. Edit the probable claim: The riverside event will probable close early.

L3-03. A note says deduction must is an absolute fact: The lights are on, so the organiser must be inside.

L3-04. Compare three fictional event options using provided evidence. Predict conditions for each, then recommend one without overstating certainty.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

A01 · Learn · Why is the speaker looking forward?

Read each event-planning context. Decide whether it expresses a prior intention, a prediction from present evidence, a decision made now or an opinion prediction. Explain the decisive context before naming the form.

A01-01. We booked the hall yesterday. We're going to hold the class fair there.

A01-02. Look at those dark clouds. It's going to rain.

A01-03. The phone is ringing. I'll answer it.

A01-04. I think the science show will be popular.

A01-05. We have not chosen the music yet. Perhaps we'll ask the class tomorrow.

A02 · Learn · General patterns and real future conditions

Decide whether each condition describes a general/repeated result or one realistic future contingency. Explain what happens when the condition is met.

A02-01. If people heat ice, it melts.

A02-02. Whenever the art club finishes, members tidy the room.

A02-03. If it rains during Saturday's fair, we'll move the games indoors.

A02-04. The fair will continue outside as long as the weather stays safe.

A03 · Notice · Future meaning and real-condition box

Read the whole box. Identify time meaning, decision evidence and condition meaning before checking the verb groups.

A04 · Notice · Mark meaning, evidence and clause roles

Label each line INTENTION, EVIDENCE PREDICTION, NOW DECISION, OPINION PREDICTION, GENERAL CONDITION, REPEATED CONDITION or REAL FUTURE CONDITION. Mark the decisive evidence and verb groups.

A04-01. We bought the materials yesterday. We're going to make signs tonight.

A04-02. That box is falling! I'll catch it.

A04-03. The wind is getting stronger. The outdoor screen is going to fall.

A04-04. I expect the quiz will be enjoyable.

A04-05. If pupils mix blue and yellow paint, they get green.

A04-06. Whenever the reading club meets, Mina brings a notebook.

A04-07. Unless the rain stops, we'll use the hall.

A04-08. The outdoor plan can continue provided that the path stays safe.

A05 · Build · Build the intended future or condition

Complete each line from the stated meaning. Keep the context decisive and use the controlled clause pattern without claiming it is the only possible English form.

A05-01. prior intention: We ____ (hold) the fair in the hall; it is already booked.

A05-02. decision now: The doorbell is ringing. I ____ (open) the door.

A05-03. evidence prediction: Look at the loose sign. It ____ (fall).

A05-04. opinion prediction: I think everyone ____ (enjoy) the show.

A05-05. zero conditional: If people ____ (heat) ice, it ____ (melt).

A05-06. first conditional: If it ____ (rain), we ____ (move) inside.

A05-07. unless: We won't start outside ____ the wind becomes safer.

A05-08. required condition: The activity can continue ____ everyone follows the safety guide.

A05-09. going-to form repair: She going to bring the labels.

A05-10. if-clause repair: If it will rain, we'll use the hall.

A06 · Choose · Choose the best future or condition

Choose one best line for the complete context. Treat will/be going to as contextual tendencies and condition patterns as controlled pathways, not universal bans. Every distractor routes to repair.

A06-01. The hall was booked yesterday for a class fair. State the prior intention.

- A. We'll perhaps book a hall someday. B. We're going to hold the fair in the booked hall. C. We hold the fair whenever the hall is booked.

A06-02. The phone starts ringing now. Choose the immediate decision.

- A. I'll answer it. B. I'm going to answer it; I made this plan yesterday. C. If it rings, I answered it.

A06-03. A heavy box is visibly slipping from the shelf. Choose the evidence-based prediction.

- A. It falling soon. B. It will fall because all evidence predictions must use will. C. It's going to fall.

A06-04. Give an opinion prediction about the event, not a prior plan.

- A. The event going to popular. B. I think the event will be popular. C. The event is popular if tomorrow.

A06-05. Choose the accurate be going to question.

- A. Do we going to start at nine? B. Are we going start at nine? C. Are we going to start at nine?

A06-06. Choose the general result, not one future contingency.

- A. If people heat ice, it melts. B. If people heat ice tomorrow, it will melt. C. When our class heated ice yesterday, it melted.

A06-07. Rain tomorrow is a realistic possibility. Choose the controlled first conditional.

- A. Whenever it rains, we move inside. B. If it will rain tomorrow, we will move inside. C. If it rains tomorrow, we will move inside.

A06-08. Choose the accurate controlled if-clause form.

- A. If the bus will arrive late, we'll wait. B. If the bus arrives late, we'll wait. C. If the bus arriving late, we'll wait.

A06-09. The fair will move indoors if the rain does not stop. Express this with unless.

- A. Unless the rain stops, the fair will move indoors. B. Unless the rain doesn't stop, the fair will move indoors. C. Unless the rain stops, the fair will stay outside.

A06-10. Choose a required-condition meaning, not duration or a repeated routine.

- A. We stayed as long as three hours. B. Whenever the club meets, it tidies the room. C. The event can continue as long as the path stays safe.

A06-11. Choose the coherent plan: prior intention, present-evidence prediction and realistic contingency.

- A. We will planned the fair. The dark clouds will certainly perhaps rain. If it will rain, we moved inside. B. We're going to hold the fair outside. Those dark clouds mean it's probably going to rain. If it rains, we'll move inside. C. We going to hold the fair. It perhaps rains yesterday. Unless it won't rain, we will moved inside.

A06-12. Choose the accurate will/be going to and conditional scope boundary.

- A. M13 scores controlled future meanings and real conditions; present-continuous arrangements and unreal conditionals remain later or extension work. B. Every future meaning must use will; be going to is always wrong. C. If plus present always creates a zero conditional, regardless of meaning.

A07 · Use · Plan a safe class event

Create a fictional or teacher-approved class event plan; do not present invented lines as official school policy. Use safe, realistic plans and contingencies. Complete the first attempt without the future/condition box.

A07-01. Name the event, audience, date and safe location; identify which details are already decided.

A07-02. Write two prior intentions with be going to and state the planning evidence.

A07-03. Write one decision made now with will and explain what triggered it.

A07-04. Write one opinion prediction with will and one calibrated probably/perhaps prediction.

A07-05. Write one zero-conditional rule or routine and explain why it is general/repeated.

A07-06. Write three realistic contingencies: one with if, one with unless and one with as long as or provided that.

A07-07. Submit and explain a coherent event plan, then repair any future meaning, clause form, linker, probability or safety problem.

A08 · Check · Diagnose future meaning and conditions

Each item has one primary problem or false claim. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive meaning, evidence, clause or linker clue.

A08-01. We booked the hall yesterday, so we'll decide now to hold the fair there.

A08-02. I will to carry the small box.

A08-03. Mina are going to brings the labels.

A08-04. The writer labels If people heat ice, it melts as one uncertain event tomorrow.

A08-05. If it will rain tomorrow, we'll use the hall.

A08-06. Unless the rain doesn't stop, we'll move indoors.

A08-07. The sentence We stayed as long as three hours is labelled a required condition.

A08-08. Perhaps the event will definitely be cancelled.

A08-09. The plan says: We going to start outside. If it will rain, we will stayed there. Unless the path isn't unsafe, everyone must run.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive future/condition evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the future-condition system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8–9 are complete governed delayed returns from S7-M07 and S7-M11.

A10-01. Explain prior intention, evidence prediction, now decision and opinion prediction without naming a form first.

A10-02. State the controlled forms for will and be going to, including questions and negatives.

A10-03. Explain the meaning difference between a general condition and one realistic future condition.

A10-04. Repair: If the wind will become stronger, we'll move inside.

A10-05. Rewrite with unless: If the rain doesn't stop, the fair will move indoors.

A10-06. Write one general whenever condition and one future as long as condition.

A10-07. Write a five-line event plan containing intention, now decision, prediction, general rule and realistic contingency.

A10-08. S7-M07 L3: Complete the delayed narrative gate. Edit: (1) The film was lasting two hours because it was long. Near the end, the lights were going out suddenly. (2) While the pupils was working the teacher did entered. (3) It was being cold, and Mina was knowing the way home. Then write an unseen four-frame story of at least eight connected sentences with background, story-changing event, simultaneous activity/background state, when plus while/as and two sequence links. Record the external check and corrected retry.

A10-09. S7-M11 L2: Complete the delayed obligation return. Choose a strict rule rather than might/should; choose no necessity rather than prohibition/compulsory advice; repair If you join the trip, you should pay by Friday when payment is compulsory; then write a four-line event note with requirement, practical necessity, recommendation and optional action.

A11 · Reflect · What makes this future meaning fit?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What question helps you choose will or be going to?

A11-02. How do you distinguish a general condition from a real future condition?

A11-03. Why do we avoid will mechanically in the controlled if-clause?

A11-04. What check prevents an unless double negative?

A11-05. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what retry evidence shows this?

A11-06. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a future/condition heading.

A. Leo says that he is busy now. B. Leo said that he was busy then. C. Leo said that he had been busy the previous week.

A06-08. Choose the accurate rule, not an automatic-backshift overclaim.

A. Every reported sentence must move every tense back. B. A reporter must always change here to there, even in the same place. C. Tense and reference changes depend on reporting time, place, people and whether the information remains current.

A06-09. On Monday Eva said, 'I will call tomorrow.' Report the day reference from Wednesday.

A. Eva said that she would call the following day. B. Eva said that she would call the day before. C. Eva said that she called that day.

A06-10. At the library Eva said, 'My bag is here.' Report later from home.

A. Eva said that her bag was here. B. Eva said that her bag was at home. C. Eva said that her bag was there.

A06-11. Choose the faithful concise update: statement, wh-question and yes/no question.

A. Mia asked the fair was ready. Ben said where was it. Ana wondered me is it inside. B. Mia said that the fair was ready. Ben asked where it was. Ana asked whether it was inside. C. Mia told that the fair was ready. Ben asked whether it was. Ana said where it was inside.

A06-12. Choose the accurate Module 14 scope boundary.

A. M14 scores simple reported statements/questions and viewpoint changes; complex tense sequences and reported commands remain later or extension work. B. M14 requires past perfect in every report with a past reporting verb. C. Every indirect question must use direct-question order and a question mark.

A07 · Use · Pass on an event-planning update

Use fictional roles or teacher-approved public class-event content. If reporting real classmates, obtain permission and exclude private or sensitive information. Complete the first attempt without the reporting box.

A07-01. Create or collect three short event-planning statements and two questions. Record each original speaker and any listener.

A07-03. Report one wh-question with the wh-word retained and statement order.

A07-04. Report one yes/no or alternative question with if/whether; use whether for explicit alternatives.

A07-05. Make at least three justified person, tense/modal, time or place changes; explain each changed viewpoint.

A07-06. Add one concise explanation or mention using explain/mention accurately.

A07-07. Submit a coherent six-to-eight-sentence update, then repair any reporting verb, question order, linker, reference or faithfulness problem.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the report

Each item has one primary problem or false claim. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive speech-purpose, order or viewpoint clue.

A08-01. Mia said me that the hall was ready.

A08-02. Ben's original line was a question, but the report says: Ben said that the hall was open.

A08-03. Ana asked where was the library?

A08-04. The direct question is 'Is the shop open?' The report says: Ana asked where the shop was open.

A08-05. The direct question is 'What time does it start?' The report says: Leo asked whether it started.

A08-06. Mia told Noor, 'I will bring your book.' Noor reports: Mia told me that I would bring her book.

A08-07. The guide says now that the museum opens at nine. A rule claims the report must be: The guide said that the museum had opened at nine.

A08-08. Reporting from home two days later, Eva said, 'My bag is here now.' → Eva said that her bag was here now.

A08-09. Update: Mia told the event ready. Ben asked where was it? Ana mentioned about rain and reported a private medical detail.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive speech-purpose/viewpoint evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the reporting system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8-9 are the complete governed delayed returns from S7-M08 and S7-M12.

A10-01. Explain when to use say, tell, ask and wonder before giving their clause patterns.

A10-02. State the controlled order for wh- and yes/no reported questions.

A10-03. Explain why pronoun, tense, time and place changes are viewpoint-dependent rather than automatic.

A10-04. Repair: Mia told that she was ready.

A10-05. Repair: Ben asked what time did the event start?

A10-06. Report later: On Monday Eva said, 'I will call tomorrow from here.' You report on Wednesday from another place.

A10-07. Write a five-line update with say, tell + listener, one wh-question, one yes/no question and one justified viewpoint change.

A10-08. S7-M08 L3: Complete the delayed present-perfect gate. Edit (1) Have you ever saw a live show? — Yes, I did. I have seen one last year. (2) Maya have just wrote the labels, so they are ready now. (3) The pupils haven't never finished yet, so the teacher is still waiting. Then conduct or invent an unseen four-question safe experience interview and write an eight-sentence report with two irregular participles, one never answer, one past-simple finished follow-up and one just/already/yet present result with explicit evidence now. Record the external check and corrected retry.

A10-09. S7-M12 L2: Complete the delayed certainty return. (1) Choose the possible report: A. The organiser says the event might finish early. B. The organiser says visitors must leave early. C. The organiser says the locked hall must be empty. (2) Choose the probable claim: A. Perhaps the match will move. B. The match will probably move indoors because three forecasts agree. C. The match must move indoors because movement is possible. (3) Repair: Mina says the bus might arrives late. (4) Write a four-line report with two possible claims, one probable claim and one strong deduction.

A11 · Reflect · What keeps a report faithful?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What do you identify before choosing say, tell, ask or wonder?

A11-02. What order check repairs a reported question?

A11-03. How do you decide whether I/you/my/our changes?

A11-04. Why is automatic backshift unsafe as a universal rule?

A11-05. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what retry evidence shows this?

A11-06. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a reporting-language heading.

L0-01. Listener named: Mia ____ me that the hall was ready.

L0-02. No listener named: Leo ____ that the room was open.

L0-03. Repair: Ben asked where was the bus stop?

L0-04. Report later: 'Is the event free?' Use whether.

L0-05. Noor reports Mia's 'I will bring your book.'

L0-06. Report later/from elsewhere: 'I am busy here now.'

L0-07. Write one wh- and one yes/no reported question.

L0-08. Write a four-line update with say, tell, ask and one justified reference change.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the reporting box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Repair: Mia said us that the tickets were ready.

L1-02. Repair: Ana asked did the bus arrive.

L1-03. Repair the changed viewpoint: On Monday Leo said, 'I can help here tomorrow.' Report on Wednesday elsewhere.

L1-04. Explain one context where tense may stay and one where a controlled shift fits.

L1-05. Write one ask report and one wonder sentence; explain the speech-purpose difference.

L1-06. Write a six-line fictional event update with two statements, two question types and two justified reference changes.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M16

In S7-M16 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve M14 reporting while passing on practical advice. Multi-word verb and gerund/infinitive patterns are checked separately by the host module.

L2-01. Choose the faithful listener report: A. Mina told me that I should check the map. B. Mina said me that I should check it. C. Mina wondered me whether I checked it.

L2-02. Choose the reported wh-question: A. Leo asked whether the bus left. B. Leo asked what time the bus left. C. Leo asked what time did the bus leave?

L2-03. Repair: Ana asked where should she look for the key?

L2-04. Write a four-line report passing on two pieces of advice, one wh-question and one yes/no question.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M20 or the timetable equivalent, complete an unseen shared-scene message relay in English. An external checker must verify mixed editing and independent reporting after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Mia said me that both maps were here.

L3-02. Edit: Ben asked where were those boxes?

L3-03. Edit the viewpoint: Ana told Leo, 'I will move my bag here tomorrow.' Leo reports later elsewhere: Ana told me that I will move your bag here tomorrow.

L3-04. Use an unseen shared-scene card to relay two statements, one wh-question and one yes/no question in six to eight sentences. Preserve people and object reference, and justify at least three tense/time/place/pronoun decisions.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

A07 · Use · Describe interests, duties and intention

Create a safe fictional profile or describe yourself using information you choose to share. Do not judge classmates or include private, medical or sensitive information. Complete the first attempt without the pattern box.

A07-01. Name one safe interest and one demonstrated skill; use interested in/keen on and good at with evidence.

A07-02. Describe one achievement/person you are proud of and one safe concern using proud of and worried about.

A07-03. Describe one ordinary responsibility with responsible for + noun/gerund.

A07-04. Compare two safe objects/places using similar to and different from.

A07-05. Describe one person/place as famous for something and one group as ready for an event.

A07-06. Write one accidental event with by chance and one deliberate event with on purpose; make the evidence decisive.

A07-07. Submit a coherent eight-sentence profile/update including one in detail or in public expression, then repair any meaning-unit, complement, intention or privacy problem.

A08 · Check · Diagnose the whole pattern

Each item has one primary problem or false claim. Name the error code, repair it and explain the decisive meaning-unit, complement or context clue.

A08-01. Nina enjoys science but is a beginner, so the report says she is good at science.

A08-02. Omar is good chess and interested on puzzles.

A08-03. Mina is responsible for feed the fish.

A08-04. Kai has an assigned duty, but the note says: Kai is worried about feeding the fish.

A08-07. Nobody planned the discovery, but the report says: We found it on purpose.

A08-08. The teacher asks for many specific points, but the instruction says: Describe it in public.

A08-09. Profile: I am interested at music and good in sing. I am responsible to a private medical task. I broke a cup in purpose.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record: original response → error code → retry → decisive whole-pattern/context evidence → continue/revisit/teacher route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the pattern system

Cover all explanations. Complete in English from memory. Items 8-9 are the complete governed delayed returns from S7-M09 and S7-M13.

A10-01. Explain why interested in and good at are not interchangeable.

A10-02. State the complement rule after a target preposition and contrast ready for with ready to.

A10-03. Group the target meanings: feeling/duty, comparison, state/risk, intention/setting/manner.

A10-04. Repair: She is interested on read and good in draw.

A10-05. Choose and explain: Nobody planned the meeting; we met by chance/on purpose.

A10-06. Write one similar to/different from pair with specific evidence.

A10-07. Write a five-line safe profile with interest, skill, duty, concern and deliberate/accidental event.

A10-08. S7-M09 L3: Complete the delayed duration gate. Edit (1) Mina has been a member since six months and she is still a member. (2) Leo has lived there from 2021 to 2023, but he moved away. (3) We have known each other since we have joined the club. Then write an unseen eight-sentence safe/invented time line with a starting point, matching duration, How long question/answer, current evidence, so-far or recent progress and a finished-past contrast. Record the external check and corrected retry.

A10-09. S7-M13 L2: Complete the delayed future/condition return. (1) Choose the prior intention: A. We're going to prepare the room; the plan is agreed. B. We'll decide yesterday to prepare it. C. We prepare it unless last week. (2) Choose the real future condition: A. Whenever pupils mix colours, they get new colours. B. If the delivery arrives tomorrow, we'll organise the materials. C. If the delivery will arrive, we organised it yesterday. (3) Repair: Unless the labels don't arrive, we'll make new ones. (4) Write a four-line preparation note with a prior intention, opinion prediction, general routine and future contingency.

A11 · Reflect · How do whole patterns carry meaning?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but does not change the evidence result.

A11-01. What should you learn instead of translating a preposition alone?

A11-02. How do you distinguish interested in from good at?

A11-03. What form follows a target preposition when the complement is an action?

A11-04. What context check separates by chance from on purpose?

A11-05. Which error code do you most need to revisit, and what retry evidence shows this?

A11-06. Record confidence from 1-4, then choose: continue, repeat one contrast, revisit A03 or ask for teacher support.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a pattern heading.

L1-05. Write one by chance and one on purpose event with decisive evidence.

L1-06. Write a six-line fictional profile using six different governed patterns.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M17

In S7-M17 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve M15 patterns while comparing two transport or study options. Comparative forms are checked separately by the host module.

L2-01. Choose the skill claim: A. Mina is interested in cycling. B. Mina is good at cycling; she completes the route quickly. C. Mina is responsible for cycling.

L2-02. Choose the accurate comparison relation: A. The plans are similar to each other in cost. B. The plans are similar with each other. C. The plans are responsible for each other.

L2-03. Repair: We are keen in choose the safer option.

L2-04. Write a four-line comparison note using interested in/good at, similar to/different from and ready for.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M21 or the timetable equivalent, complete an unseen safe profile/description task in English. An external checker must verify mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Mina is interested on science and good in solve problems.

L3-02. Edit: The two new rooms are similar with each other but different from the old room.

L3-03. Edit the intention meaning: Nobody planned the discovery, but the note says we found it on purpose.

L3-04. Use an unseen fictional profile/place card to write eight sentences with interest, skill, pride/concern, responsibility, similarity/difference, readiness/risk and accidental/deliberate meaning. Include at least three noun/gerund complements.

L3-05. Record the external check, any diagnostic code and corrected retry. State whether both mixed editing and independent production passed.

A06-12. Choose the approved solve/calculate sense, not another possible dictionary sense.

- A. They worked out at the gym. B. The plan worked out well. C. They worked out the answer together.

A07 · Use · Give safe practical advice

Create a fictional or self-chosen safe advice card. Do not include dangerous, medical, private or coercive instructions. Complete the first attempt without the pattern box.

A07-01. Write one line advising someone to continue useful practice; use carry on + -ing.

A07-02. Write one line advising someone not to stop after one error; use do not give up + -ing.

A07-03. Write one line directing attention; use focus on.

A07-04. Write one line advising how to solve or discover information; use work out or find out.

A07-05. Add one line with wait for, listen to, deal with or ask someone to help.

A07-06. Combine at least four naturally chosen multi-word patterns into a coherent practical-advice card.

A07-07. Explain why each selected pattern fits its practical goal and identify one separable/inseparable placement decision.

A08 · Check · Diagnose structure, meaning and placement

Each item has one primary defect or false claim. Name its error code, repair it and explain the decisive evidence.

A08-01. Turn down it politely.

A08-02. Please listen the announcement.

A08-03. We waited it for outside.

A08-04. She succeeded to solving the puzzle.

A08-05. He gave up to try after one minute.

A08-06. Pick up it carefully.

A08-07. All two-word verbs are separable.

A08-08. Work out always means exercise.

A08-09. Write unsafe advice that pressures a learner to continue a risky action.

A09 · Check · Use the complete repair route

Choose one error from A06, A07 or A08. Follow Diagnose → Cue → Contrast → Retry → Explain/Reveal → Route.

A09-01. Record the code, first response, cue, contrast, corrected retry, explanation and next route.

A10 · Retrieve · Reconstruct the multi-word system

Cover all explanations and complete in English from memory. Items 8-9 host the complete governed S7-M10 L3 and S7-M14 L2 returns.

A10-01. Refuse it politely, using turn down.

A10-02. Lift it carefully, using pick up.

A10-03. Use listen + it as a complete controlled unit.

A10-04. Use succeed in + solve the puzzle.

A10-05. Use carry on + practise.

A10-06. Explain the two functions of to in 'I want to listen to the guide.'

A10-07. Write four safe advice lines using four naturally chosen controlled patterns.

A10-08. Complete the full S7-M10 L3 return: (a) edit 'Does Leo can swim now? — Yes, he can swims.'; (b) edit the intended formal permission exchange 'May you enter the room? — Yes, I may.'; (c) edit the intended tentative request 'Can you help me? — Of course.' while noting that neutral can remains possible; (d) write an unseen eight-turn safe school dialogue containing present/past-general ability, neutral/formal permission, neutral/tentative requests, acceptance and respectful refusal; (e) record external checking, codes, retries and whether mixed editing plus independent production both passed.

A10-09. Complete the full S7-M14 L2 return while passing on practical advice: (a) choose the faithful listener report: A. Mina told me that I should check the map. B. Mina said me that I should check it. C. Mina wondered me whether I checked it.; (b) choose the reported wh-question: A. Leo asked whether the bus left. B. Leo asked what time the bus left. C. Leo asked what time did the bus leave?; (c) repair 'Ana asked where should she look for the key?'; (d) write a four-line report with two pieces of advice, one wh-question and one yes/no question.

A11 · Reflect · How do multi-word patterns carry meaning?

Reflect briefly. Confidence selects practice but never changes the evidence result.

A11-01. What meaning clue helped you choose a multi-word unit?

A11-02. How did noun/pronoun placement distinguish a separable unit?

A11-03. How did you identify prepositional to versus infinitive to?

A11-04. Which error code still needs practice?

A11-05. Record confidence 1-4 and compare it with actual evidence.

A11-06. Schedule L1, L2 in S7-M18 and L3 in S7-M22.

L0 · Retrieve · L0 — same-session exit

Close the module. Complete without notes or a topic heading.

L0-01. Refuse it politely.

L0-02. Use depend + the weather.

L0-03. Use work out + it.

L0-04. Use take part + the activity.

L0-05. Use apologise for + arrive late.

L0-06. Explain the placement difference: pick it up / wait for it.

L0-07. Explain both to forms in 'We decided to listen to Ana.'

L0-08. Write four safe practical-advice lines with four controlled units.

L1 · Retrieve · L1 — 1-3-day return

Complete later without the pattern box. Retry every routed error before recording evidence.

L1-01. Repair: Please turn down it.

L1-02. Repair: We listened the guide.

L1-03. Choose and explain: give up trying / give up to try.

L1-04. Explain why 'wait it for' does not copy 'pick it up'.

L1-05. Use work out and find out in two different controlled meanings.

L1-06. Write a five-line safe advice card with four controlled units.

L2 · Retrieve · L2 — mixed return in S7-M18

In S7-M18 or the timetable equivalent, retrieve M16 patterns while comparing quantities and options. Quantifier choice is checked separately by the host module.

L2-01. Choose: We have little time, so let us A. focus the first step / B. focus on the first step / C. focus the first step on.

L2-02. Choose: There are a few clues, so we can A. work them out / B. work out them / C. work them.

L2-03. Repair: We succeeded to solve a few problems.

L2-04. Write four comparison/advice lines using M18 quantity meaning and at least three complete M16 patterns.

L3 · Retrieve · L3 — 21-35-day retained-evidence gate

In S7-M22 or the timetable equivalent, complete an unseen safe problem-solving/advice task in English. An external checker must verify mixed editing and independent production after any governed retry.

L3-01. Edit: Turn down it if the offer is unsafe.

L3-02. Edit: We succeeded to working out the answer.

L3-03. Explain the placement contrast in an unseen pair containing one separable and one prepositional unit.

L3-04. Write an unseen eight-line safe advice/problem-solving plan using at least six naturally chosen M16 patterns, one gerund pattern and one infinitive contrast.

L3-05. Record external checking, diagnostic codes, corrected retries and whether mixed editing plus independent production both passed.
